MARGARITA & THE HOUSE OF LOVE

An intimate show by Casa Margarita that combines the beautiful and little known music of Spain with cameo love stories. Funny, sad, witty, clever, heartbreaking and hopeful, this is a musical jigsaw of love that fits into an old house in Seville.

Scriptwriter Nicola Harrison has collaborated with five world-class musicians and a narrator to weave the music of Granados, de Falla, Rodrigo and other Spanish composers into a compelling and passionate tale.

“It is evening and Jiraldito sits on the roof and watches the sun set over Seville. The air is heavy with the scent of jasmine, and bougainvillea trails over the walls, flecked with golden particles of dust that sparkle in the evening light. The murmurs of lovers rise up from the street, and the bright colours of girls’ dresses move like oblongs of life down the cobbled streets...”

“What you are doing is incredible.”

Legendary Spanish singer and Patron, Teresa Berganza

“Ravishing music, exciting rhythms and an untraditional approach.”
